None but best companies represented. SELLS & GRAY's circus is billed here to appear at Danville Saturday, May 25. If Harry Giovannoli finds it out he will come down from Washington. BOYLE county democrats will hold a primary tomorrow. If they make as strong a ticket as the Lincoln county boys did they will have no occasion for regret. TEN trips with the McKinney hack were enough for John Brackett, and W. H. Parsons, the original contractor, is again carrying mail and passengers from here to that point. THE first picnic of the season will be held in the Withers grove on Lancaster pike May 30. Joe Faulkner is the manager and a big time is looked forward to by the colored brothers. GROCERIES.—J. R. Carpenter's residence and stealing a watch and other valuables, was discharged at his examining trial yesterday. A TREAT.—Miss Lizzie Beazley gave some 35 members of the Mission Band a treat at her home Wednesday evening. Among the good things served were ice and cake and the little ones enjoyed Miss Beazley's hospitality to the fullest extent. POLLS are being scattered for a telephone line direct from here to Lancaster, which will give a good connection with that place. The office for this line, which belongs to the Independent Company, will be at I. M. Bruce's livery stable on Depot Street. THE Fulton School Board has issued an order forbidding teachers from attending card parties, dances or theatres during the scholastic term. It would be hard on the Lincoln county teachers if Supt. Garland Singleton would decree that they should be deprived of such pleasures. POOR LOUIS.—In accounts of the "crash" on Wall street last week it is said "many went home to dinner penniless." Well, we don't see anything remarkable in this. We "go home to dinner penniless" 365 times a year and doubtless many a poor fellow does the same thing.—Central Record. THE Richmond Register says: J. B. Willis, manager of Crab Orchard Springs, has everything in readiness for guests and will welcome all who come, especially his old neighbors from Richmond, in his well-known hospitable style. Don't forget Joe and Patty when planning your summer outings. BIG BUSINESS.—Insurance Agent R. B. Mahony tells us that he has written $8,576.00 in premiums since April of last year: three-fourths or more of which is in the Continental Insurance Co. Besides this fire insurance he has gotten his share of the life, accident and tornado insurance that has been written in this section. THE invitations the graduating class of Stanford Female College will send out are the handsomest we have seen. The work was done by the Chatfield & Woods Co., of Cincinnati, who are not only up-to-date paper dealers, but always in the lead in engraving. They are pretty expensive, but the average girl doesn't graduate more than once in a life time and she doesn't mind spending a few dollars for that memorable occasion.

IF you need stationery, bills, posters, catalogues, or anything of the kind, bear in mind the INTERIOR JOURNAL can save you money. JOHN H. MEIER has bought a fan to keep his customers cool and will put it to work when the weather gets warmer. It will be run by water. THE court of appeals decides that the Boyle circuit court has jurisdiction in the case of Jack Turner, administrator, vs. the L. & N. railroad, and that it must be tried there. Turner was killed in Tennessee, and the lower court held that the action to recover must be brought either in Louisville in the Federal court or Tennessee. DON'T forget to call for your script when you pay your subscription. The following firms are in the association and script from one is good at any of them: Severance & Sons, Penny's Drug Store, W. W. Withers, Higgins & McKinney, H. J. McRoberts, Miss Annie Phillips, R. E. L. Simms, INTERIOR JOURNAL and Wm. Hamilton. TUESDAY NIGHT.—The pretty four-act comedy, Topsy Turvy, which gave such general satisfaction at Hustonville a week ago, will be presented at Walton's Opera House Tuesday night. Most of those who take part in the charming little play are members of Mrs. A. B. Robinson's elocutionary class at Danville and they show that that talented lady has spared no time in making them efficient in that art. THE meeting of the Lincoln County Medical Society Tuesday was not well attended, but some important business was transacted. Dr. C. M. Thompson, who was to read a paper, failed to put in an appearance, but Dr. J. G. Carpenter entertained the visiting physicians with some timely suggestions on appendicitis. He read a paper on early diagnosis, preparation and operation with one per cent. mortality. In appendicitis a 50 per cent. mortality by medical treatment. The paper brought out some fine points and was well discussed. THIS AND THAT. A Chicago judge holds that the black list against bad employees is legal. Felix Johnson, who committed suicide in Seattle, Wash., is a brother of former Gov. Johnson, of Alabama. As the result of a quarrel over a horse trade, W. L. Brown cut Buck Hensley's throat with a knife in Morgan county. Amos McCampbell, Jr., is in jail at Bardonia, having been arrested at Springfield on a charge of horse-stealing. "Steeple Jack" Williams, famous for his work at dizzy attitudes, was run over and killed by a street car at Cleveland, O. John Sherman, aged 12 years, was killed in a runaway accident at Dyersville, Ind. His mother witnessed the accident and dropped dead. The handsome home of Charles R. Brock, a prominent attorney of London, was destroyed by fire. A good portion of household goods was saved. Loss about $2,500, with $750 insurance.

Frank Miller, convicted of murder at Birmingham, Ala., attempted to burn himself to death by setting his bed on fire. PUBLIC SALE. Real estate and personal property as follows: A tract of land 1½ miles west of Crab Orchard, fine farming and business land, well watered, the farm being the old Col. Whitley homestead and it would make any family a desirable home. The dwelling on this farm was recently burned, but there is a barn, buggy-house, spring-house, etc., and the site is a beautiful one on which to build; also churches and schools on good road; excellent neighborhood. This tract will be offered as a whole and in parcels and the bid or bids accepted from which we realize most money. At the same time and place I will sell our personal property, consisting of some milk cows, horses, bays, some corn, household and kitchen furniture and other things too numerous to mention. It will be observed that this land lies close to the famous Crab Orchard Springs, noted for its health giving waters. It would be hard to find a more desirable place to live and those desiring to buy should not do so to look at this place closely before day of sale. Splendid springs furnish abundance of water the year round. The spring near the yard where the dwelling was recently burned is absolutely one of the best in Lincoln county. There is a splendid orchard. Terms made known on day of sale. S. A. & M. E. MONTGOMERY, Crab Orchard, Ky. JUST LIKE A MILL.
